

English Baroque Songs - II

1. Thou flask once fill'd with glorious red

a song in The Committee : sung by Mr Leveridge

John Blow

Thou flask once fill'd with glo - ri - ous red, But emp-ty now, for shame be gone; Thy fate be- moan, For with thy charms my love is fled: Fall to the groom or drawer's lot, fall to the groom or draw-er's lot, Like a stale mis-tress now for-got, now for - got,

Source: The Gentleman's Journal, Feb. 1693. Originally a tone higher. Original time-signature 31.