

Four Dialogues - II

from Orpheus Britannicus

Henry Purcell

3. Since Times are so bad (Z. 578 II)

A Dialogue in the 4th. Act of the 2nd. Part of Don-Quixote

He

Since Times are so bad, I must tell you sweet Heart, I'm think-ing to leave off my Plough and my

4 2 6 b5 6 6 #6

5

Cart, and to the Fair Ci - ty a jour - ney will goe, to bet-ter my

6 4 6 4 2 6 # 7 6 # 4 2 6

9

For-tune as o-ther folk do; Since some have from Ditch-es, and course Lea-ther Breech-es, been

7 6 7 5 6 6

13

rais'd, been rais'd to be Ru-lers and wal-low'd in Rich-es, pri-thee

6 6 4 #3 7 #4