

ENGLISH BAROQUE SONGS - I

for high voice and continuo

CONTENTS

Daniel Purcell (c.1674-1717) Alas! When charming Sylvia's gone	4
John Eccles (c.1668-1735) Cease of Cupid to complain	6
Jeremiah Clarke (c.1674-1707) Jocky was as brisk and blithe	8
John Barrett (c.1676-1719) A Song call'd The Pilgrim	10
Henry Carey (1687-1743) Happy the youthful swain	12
Anon (c.1728) The Siren of the Stage	14
John Frederick Lampe (1702/3-1751) The Declaring Lover	16
Renatus Harris (1678-1735) Could I the lovely Celia move	18
Richard Leveridge (1670-1758) Who is Silvia?	20
William Boyce (1711-1779) O nightingale	23

English Baroque Songs - I

1. Alas! When charming Sylvia's gone

Daniel Purcell

1. A - las! a - las! when charm - ing Syl - via's
2. Ah! me, ah! me, what pow'r can move me
3. Ah! no, ah! no, 'tis love; 'tis now too

6

gone, I sigh, I sigh, and think my - self un - so, I die, I die with grief when she must plain; I feel, I feel, I feel the plea - sing.

12

- done, I sigh, I sigh, and think my - self un - go: I die, I die with grief when she must pain; I feel, I feel, I feel the plea - sing.

Source: Single sheet engraved by Thomas Cross, c.1700. Original time signature 31.

© Copyright Timothy Roberts 2012

Green Man Press EBS 1-1 H 12/11/12